Little Bigfoot, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Anemone, blackberry, crab, Douglas fir, eagle.this elegant alphabet book mirrors the natural wonders of the Pacific Northwest. Except for the double-page spreads "A for anemone" and "Z for zephyr," each Northwest entity is allotted one gift-card-perfect page, showing the capital and lowercase versions of each letter. The artwork resembles woodcuts, but Viano carves away black paper to shape her images. A soothing palette--creams, robin''s-egg blue, pale greens, warm rose--sets a reflective mood in keeping with the quiet, still illustrations of close-up objects and landscapes alike. .Much of the pictured flora and fauna, such as gull, lichen, nettle, pine cone, queen bee, etc. can be found elsewhere around the world. The author embraces her Northwest-resident status, using inclusive language like "[o]ur beloved ISLANDS" and extending her conversational tone with friendly admonitions such as "Blame the squirrel for the falling PINECONE that hits you on the head while you rest against a tree." Urchins and volcanoes and whales, oh my! This eye-catching alphabet book affectionately showcases the Northwest''s bountiful beauty." Kirkus Reviews "Teach kids to read the Northwest way with S is for Salmon .a new alphabet book by Seattle artist Hannah Viano, featuring gorgeous paper-cut illustrations of local flora and fauna." Seattle magazine ".this quintessential alphabet book for Northwest kids brings together gorgeous paper-cut artwork with pages dedicated to all that is living in the Northwest--L is for lichen, M is for morel, O is for octopus--in a way that celebrates the beauty of our home and everything that makes it unique. This book is perfect for the little (or big) explorer in your family." Red Tricycle Beautiful paper-cut illustrations highlight Northwest flora and fauna, from B for blackberry to R for rhododendron. Muted...
