Jolo, Jolo Island, March 27, 1902. To His Highness the Sultan of Jolo from his brother the governor of Jolo, Colonel Wallace, Greetings: I felt very sorry to learn from your prime minister Hadji Butu that the arrival of the cavalry at Maibun on Sunday had so frightened your mother, the Sultana, and the women and children generally. This was not my intention and I most sincerely regret it. But I must say that the burning of the hut on the Maibun road immediately after my letter to you concerning the burning of the houses near Jolo surprised me, so that I did not know what to think. I hope that such misunderstandings will not rise again, and am pleased to learn that my order has been obeyed and peace been reestablished on the island. I wish your people to avoid in future all...
