At twelve oclock Washington appeared on the colonnade of the City Hall, at the corner of Nassau and Wall streets, attended by his Cabinet and both Houses of Congress. In the presence of the hundred thousand freemen who thronged Wall, Nassau, and Broad streets, Chancellor Livingston read to the President the following oath: You do solemnly swear that you will faithfully execute the oflBce of President of the United States, and will, to the best of your ability, Peesekve, Protect, and Defend the Constitution Of The United States. Washington pronounced the words of the oath clearly and distinctly after the Chancellor, and closing his eyes, with his whole soul absorbed in the supplication, he added, So help me God 1 and kissed the Bible lying before him. Chancellor Livingston then said to the multitude: It is done. Long Urn George Washington President of the United States Then was uttered such a...
