In despotic countries it is often the unholy task to celebrate the birth day of a tyrant, or the period of national subjugation. Ours is a nobler purpose: we have met, to render our tribute to the emancipation of the mind, and to offer our oblation on the altar of freedom. Among the numerous benefits which our Independence has conferred upon the world, by far the most important one, is the salutary lesson which the success of our institutions has taught to mankind. For, while on the one hand, it has assured those nations who are solicitous for freedom, that man is capable of...
