A Lucky Lie: The Power of 18 (Paperback)

By Sydney Pearl, A Book by Me

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Dani Lipman (illustrator). 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .David Wolnerman was born in 1927 in Modrzejow, Poland. Hannah, David s mother, gave birth to him on the kitchen floor of a two room home. His father had a humble job selling used burlap bags in the village. Abraham, David s brother, and his sisters, Bluma and Gertrude, enjoyed playing soccer with a ball made from their old socks. They were happy. There were both Jews and non-Jews living there and as the war broke out, life got more and more difficult for the Jews. Anti-Semitism was a problem and as Nazi soldiers came often, violence increased. Soldiers came looking for Jewish works so at age thirteen, David made a decision to go with them. They told me if I came to work, my family would be spared. To save his family, David went with them. He was taken to a camp called Auschwitz, just five kilometers from the village. Upon arrival, he saw a man separating the people into two lines, one to the left and one to the right. I saw the...
