Our chief magistrates of the state and the nation, have again called us to renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment of the unnumbered mercies bestowed on us by our Heavenly Father. It is eminently proper that we should do so; and it is a matter of congratulation that the custom is widening and extending, and promises to become universal throughout the land. Our dependence upon the Almighty Ruler is real and ought to be felt. And if truly felt it should also be acknowledged. And the fitting acknowledgment is found only in praise and thanksgiving and gratitude. God s goodness, his great goodness, his unchanging goodness, call for worship and praise, and the highest expressions of regard that we can possibly render. Such is our spiritual nature, that, if any normal state of the emotions and affections is maintained under this treatment, we must not only love the Good Being, whose excellence is without variableness or shadow of turning, but we must also find vent for our love, we must make some demonstration and find some proper exercise for the affections stirring within us. And this we have reason for believing is altogether pleasing and acceptable to the Great Giver of all. Whoso offereth praise glorifieth Me, and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of...
