Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Biennial Report of the Attorney General of the State of California: 1902-1904 Sir: Pursuant to law and custom I have the honor to transmit to you herewith my biennial report for the two years ending September 15, 1904. This report shows that there is an ever-increasing amount of business coming before the office; that this business has been disposed of expeditiously and in a manner consistent with the best interests of the State, and that such matters as are now pending are being hastened to a determination as rapidly as the circumstances of each case will permit. The work of the office may be roughly divided into three separate departments; namely, civil litigation, criminal appeals, and opinions. At the date of the last biennial report of my able predecessor, there were pending before the office, in various stages, one hundred and one civil actions, exclusive of so-called leave to sue cases. Subsequent to that report there have come into the office seventy-two new cases, and my report now transmitted to you, shows one hundred and...
