Confessions of a Published Author: 47 Truths about What Can Go Right and Wrong When Selling Your Book to a Traditional Publisher (Paperback)

By Martina Sprague

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. You are an unpublished writer with a long and impressive background in your field of expertise, and you ve got an idea for a great book. You write a proposal, and send it off to a publisher who has stated a need for this type of book. It seems like a perfect match. Three weeks later you receive a rejection letter: Thanks for your interest in us. Unfortunately, your idea doesn t meet our current needs. You are puzzled. Or, you look through the advertisements in Writer s Digest magazine, and find several publishing houses now seeking new and established authors. Having waited for an opportunity for years, you print the manuscript that has been gathering dust in your computer folder and rush it to the post office. Don t! If it sounds too easy, it is. Or, you just landed your first book contract with a legitimate publisher. Instant fame, right? Wrong! Confessions of a Published Author: 47 Truths About What Can Go Right and Wrong When Selling Your Book to a Traditional Publisher, talks straight about the publishing experience, with...
