Fifty-fourth Virginia Regiment, Camp near Chattanooga, Tenn. , September 25, 18G3. Captain: I have the honor to submit the following report of the part my regiment took iiu the battles of the 19th anil 20th instant, near Cnickamauga Creek: On the evening of the 18th, as we approached the creek from La Fayette the enemy was discovered in a large corn-field on the opposite side. Our battery was put in position, and the brigade formed in line of battle to the left on a rocky ridge. A brisk skirmish was kept up until after dark, in which a portion of General Grades brigade was engaged. My regiment was afterward moved down near the creek and put into position below Colonel Kellys brigade, in order to support him in the event of an attack during the night. On the morning of the 19th, at an early hour, I crossed the creek and rejoined the brigade, which I found forming in line on the north side and not far from the creek. After remaining in line for an hour or more, we were moved across a ridge in our front and a new line established, the left resting nearly on the creek. While there the enemy opened with a battery in our front and threw a few shells, which passed beyond my right and did some damage to the Sixth Florida. The brigade was next moved by the right flank nearly half a mile...
