Charming views of hill and mountain, of forest and meadow may be had in this region from any point. Eibenstock makes nothing but lace and embroidery. Markneukirchen, nothing but musical instruments. I shall describe my visit to the latter city, as it is better developed from the point of view of the industrial school than the former. It was on a Saturday afternoon in late July. As I alighted from the train, the weather, which had been cold and cloudy for 10 days back, promised to clear up. The railway station at Markneukirchen lies a mile from the town and I chose to walk the distance. The road I took was the hard smooth macadam, which is found everywhere in Europe, and which is such a joy to the automobilist and the bicyclist. On the right were meadows, where the peasant...
