Product Description: The Quintessential Samurai has a core class included, but is intended for use with any Samurai class, or even classes such as fighters, paladins and rangers. The first half of the book follows the usual Quintessential format, with Character Concepts allowing starting characters to take such roles as a First Born, Ill-Fated, Nameless and Untouchable, among others. The Prestige Samurai expands character options even further for the discerning player, but you will not just find combat machines here, for Samurai's fill many roles in society - players can try the Delegate, for example, or Overseer. For those wishing something more action orientated, there are the likes of the Paragon and Slayer - and if everything goes truly wrong, the Ronin. Samurai Feats, like the chapters before, keeps within both the historical and mythological view of the Samurai - you could be deemed worthy enough of being bestowed an Ancestral Katana or train in Daisho Fighting. A Grateful Leader may prove useful many times in an adventurer's life and Ki Activation can make a Samurai truly a master of his own body. 26 new feats are provided, all geared towards fleshing your Samurai out and making him a foe to be reckoned with, whether on the...
