Perhaps I have not been so studious of the reigning taste as I ought to have been, had I looked to temporary success only, and disregarded all those principles of composition, for which I still maintain a respect, and upon which I long since endeavoured to form my character as a dramatic writer. I have lived to see a good old practice thrown aside, and a new one introduced; but as I cannot think a cap and bells any ornament to the head of Apollo, I confess I am not disposed to be a partner in that buffoonery. To the Performers, who fill d the Characters in this Comedy, I beg leave to acknowledge my obligations, and return my warmest thanks.
