Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Leo Israel Samuel (nickname Ezriel Leib) was born in Cherna, Czechoslovakia and raised in a Jewish home. He was the son and grandson of rabbis. His father owned thousands of acres of forest. His town had thousands of Jewish people, and he attended religious school (Catholic) like so many of his Jewish friends. A smart boy, Leo learned how to be a tailor - to make and alter men s suits. This trade would one day save his life. When the Nazis invaded Czechoslovakia, they began to terrorize the Jewish people. Some were forced to dig long trenches or pits, not realizing they were digging their own graves. The Nazis lined them up and shot until all were dead and fell into the pit. Leo was a smart boy; he jumped in the pit without being shot and lay still, praying someone would come to help him out. By a miracle he survived. When his cousin carried him out of the pit, he asked, How can I ever repay you? His cousin suggested that after the war he should marry his sister. The Jews lived in the town s ghetto with fear and hunger as their constant companions. Eventually, the family was taken by cattle car to Auschwitz concentration camp. Leo had a job in the camp kitchen. This gave him the chance to serve extra portions to those who needed them the most. He saved many lives this way. The family lost Leo s grandmother when she misunderstood an order from the infamous Dr. Mengele, a ruthless Nazi doctor, and went into the line that ended in death. Six of the children in this...
